December 14, 2001 at 12:00 AM EST

Hamilton, Bermuda, December 14, 2001 – White Mountains Insurance Group, Ltd. (NYSE symbol: WTM) and the Benfield Group plc are pleased to announce the formation and commencement of operations of Montpelier Re Holdings Ltd., and its wholly owned subsidiary Montpelier Reinsurance Ltd., a Bermuda domiciled Class 4 insurance and reinsurance company. Montpelier is authorized in Bermuda under The Insurance Act of 1978 and will begin writing business immediately.

Montpelier will initially focus on property reinsurance business. Targeted lines of business include property catastrophe excess of loss reinsurance, property risk excess of loss reinsurance, facultative reinsurance, whole account quota share reinsurance and property retrocession reinsurance. Other lines of business may include aviation reinsurance, casualty reinsurance, workers' compensation catastrophe and personal accident catastrophe reinsurance.

The Company will have an initial capitalization of approximately $1 billion, consisting of approximately $850 million of privately placed equity securities and $150 million of bank debt. White Mountains and its affiliates contributed $200 million of equity and Benfield will contribute $25 million of equity. The remaining equity capital has been contributed by outside investors.

Jack Byrne, Chairman of White Mountains, will serve as the Chairman of the Board. Anthony Taylor, the former Deputy Chairman of Wellington Underwriting plc, will serve as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer and the President and Chief Underwriting Officer of Montpelier effective January 1, 2002.

The Company's Chairman Jack Byrne said, "We are delighted to have a chief executive as talented and experienced as Tony Taylor. I am pleased we can bring Tony's expertise and fresh capital to our customers who are dealing with so many challenges."

Banc of America Securities acted as placement agent for the equity and lead arranger for the debt of the Company. Benfield Advisory, part of Benfield, acted as a financial advisor to the Company.

Montpelier is headquartered at 30 Woodbourne Avenue, Pembroke, Bermuda.
